

The State Fire Marshal issued burning ban of October 15 remains in effect. Current conditions throughout the State are extremely dry and pose a fire hazard. Prohibited are bonfires, controlled burnings (including leaves & yard waste), agricultural burnings, fires for land clearing, fires for demolition and removal of hazards, outdoor rubbish fires (whether or not contained). Any questions can be emailed to: Fire.Marshal@delaware.gov

St. Johnstown Church will be celebrating their 245th Homecoming on Sunday, November 10, at 2:00pm. There will be special music and refreshments. All are Welcome!

HELP A LOCAL FAMILY THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!
Our Greenwood Police Department will again be hosting an Angel Tree. Come pick a child's wish list tag off the Christmas tree in the Town Hall lobby beginning November 20th. New, unwrapped gifts should be returned to the PD with the wish list attached by December 20th at 5pm. If you would like to participate in the giving without shopping, monetary donations for wrapping paper and extra gifts for the families will be accepted. Please call 302-349-4822 or 349-4534 with any questions.

"Christmas in Toyland"

Entries are being accepted now through November 29th for Greenwood's Christmas Parade, "Christmas in Toyland", taking place Friday, December 13th, 2024. For more information, email greenwoodtownevents@gmail.com.

A representative for each entry must attend a mandatory meeting Thursday, December 5th, at the Greenwood VFW (301 Mill St.) to receive numbers and information.

Christmas Light Judging

The Christmas lights and decorations contest is back! Judging will take place Sunday, December 22, 2024. There will be prizes for 1st and 2nd place!

TOWN OF GREENWOOD 2025 MUNICIPAL ELECTION

This election will take place Saturday, January 18, 2025. We will be filling 2 seats on the Town Council, each with a 2-year term. If you are already registered to vote in the State of Delaware and are a bona fide Town of Greenwood resident of at least 30 days, you are eligible to vote in the Town election.

Important notices will be posted in the library, post office, Delaware State News paper, and the Town's FaceBook page as they become available.
